THE #GREAT DOG WALK TOGETHER

Saturday 23 June at 11am

What is the event all about?

The aim of the #GreatDogWalkTogether is to encourage people to arrange a community walk, invite everyone to join in, with or without a dog, and enjoy the company of others to promote wellbeing.

When is it taking place?

It will take place across the UK on Saturday 23 June 2018 at 11am. We've already stated a time in order to make it as easy as possible to arrange a walk. All you have to do is decide where to meet up

Why are you organising it?

This event will support the Great Get Together initiative, which was set up by the Jo Cox Commission.

Their study into loneliness wants to encourage people within their community to get together and celebrate what they have in common. Jo Cox was quoted as saying "Let's enjoy having more in common than that which divides us" It's a great opportunity to meet new people and make new contacts.

Who's it for?

It's for anyone and everyone. You don't need a dog to take part but having dogs on the walk means that it is so much easier to strike up a conversation with a four legged friend and their owner

Where are the walks taking place?

Anywhere across the UK it's up to you where you wish to walk. We are encouraging anyone to arrange a walk.

These walks can involve small groups meeting locally for a short walk around their neighbourhood streets or a longer walk in a nearby park or surrounding countryside. It doesn't need to be a large gathering.

All you need to decide is where you will meet up and invite others to join in

What do I have to do to take part?

It's simply, all you need to do is decide where you want to walk and invite others to take part.

We will provide an information factsheet with suggestions as to how you can promote your walk.

We will also provide an A4 poster, which you can download and put up around your community

How can I get involved?

Please join the Great Dog Walk Together Facebook group to find out more details. There will soon be a website where details of walks taking place will be listed. In the meantime please share details with your friends and contacts to start the conversation about your walk

How can I find out more information?

There will soon be a dedicated website where you can post details of your walk, find out about other walks taking place. We will also provide suggestions to help you promote your walk including a poster for you to put on display. In the meantime please join the Great Dog Walk Together Facebook group or contact elaine@inyourdoghousegifts.com for more details

A MESSAGE FROM TIGGER

March brings the warmer months, well that is what I was expecting. In fact I am writing this ahead of a huge snow storm according to the weather reports. Hopefully they are wrong as usual.

Originally as a very reactive dog I am enjoying my walks with my furpals now. It has been a long process to get me to this point but I am a much more settled hound.

I still cannot be let off lead around any other dogs, to be fair I have to be careful even on my own as I go all out and end up limping. Probably something I did as a pup before I found my forever home but I am happy and am enjoying life.

Sometime soon I hope to get some merchandise to sell so that I can focus on my website and newspaper full time. Well as full time as I can be while out on my daily adventures with my human BOL!

Thank you everyone for your continued support and shout outs about my website and newspaper.

In the meantime if you have any news or a story you would like to share then email me at tigger@tigger.club

Thank you for reading
Nose bump to you
Tigger

DUSTY'S DIARY

Hi Readers, As I've settled down, my human has been trying to think of some more things we can do together that I would enjoy.

There is a charity called Wag & Company, who organise dogs and their owners to visit older people who miss the company of a dog, and seen as I have turned into something of an attention seeking cuddle monster, she thought it might be something I'd enjoy, so she sent in the application and once her reference came back ok (phew!) off we went for my assessment...

As I went into the hall, there were so many interesting sniffs, and two huge Italian spinones sat at the opposite end. I wanted to say hello but I was good and stood quietly next to my human (nothing to do with the pocket full of treats she had, honest...).

There were two nice ladies from WAG who were doing the assessment, and they kept fussing me all over, which was great and made me really happy.

Then they offered my human a biscuit, but not me!! I had to be a good girl and wait for my own treat, which I did very well.

My human was so proud when she was told I had passed the assessment, and I knew I'd done well so I went in for a cheeky tug on my lead after being so good which made them all laugh at me.

I've come so far since being a bit scared of life outside the kennel, and even though I am still a bit norty sometimes, I'm so gentle and love my fusses. I can't wait to get started, an outing where I will be fussed and fed treats all the time! Sounds great to me!

Until next time.
Have a pawsome month
Dusty

NEWS FROM DORIS - THE ROVING REPORTER

Hi Readers 10,000 miles and I've arrived in my 7th country, sunny Portugal.

I'll be hunting down the famous Piri Piri chicken and catching the odd sardine. Both of which I am rather partial to.

Our plan is to drive north up the coast, as much as we can, and visit lots of beaches.

This pleases me greatly as I am very very fond of sand and sea. I also need to warm my bones after a week in the Sierra Nevada.

It dropped to -11°C there, can you believe that?! I had to wear double jumpers (although this did entertain the other dogs present who remained naked).

Regardless of our dressed state, hounds ran freely amongst the children and skiers.

Piste zooms, sledging and snowball fights were enjoyed by all.... well apart from the poor German man who's lunch ended up covered in snow. What a lark we had!

My favourite morning, however, was spent in the ski hire shop.

The owner's friends had galgos so I was ushered in like a celebrity. Taking up prime spot on the carpet I greeted all who entered, from giddy toddlers to moody teenagers and their slope competitive parents. I could have stayed all day!

Sadly even at sub zero temperatures the Spanish need a siesta and the shop shut. Oh well, it was still an ideal morning.

Adeus, Dozza x

A GREYT CHRISTMAS TAIL & GREYT PIRATE TAIL

Tell me a bit about yourself:

Muvver has a big shiny award thingy she calls Emmy from when she worked in TV. Wees have trouble working pens so get her to write as she's good at that hooman stuff. She's practically ancient especially in dog years, Blue says she would be dead in dog years but wees don't tell her that. I am 5 (Ramsey) and am a vewy 'andsome boy. I's a lurcher which means I bounces around and eats everything but I luffs cuddles, fuss and tennis balls too. When I was just a pup I was throwed away and founded by some luffly peoples at Foal Farm Animal Rescue. They founded me in the rain on the streets I was just a little boy and very cold and scareded. Then I went to a foster home before muvver and farver showed up and kidnapped me and now I luffs them. My sister Blue is the most bluetiful girl in the whole wide world. She's 7 which makes me her toy boy but she luffs me. She's an ex afflete and used to run very fast but now she doesn't have to run anymore, except when she wants to or when I chases her to steal her toys. Now she mainly sleeps, plays bitey face and goes on adventures wiv me.

Wee has another sister called Sally but she's the scary hairy one and is too old to go on adventures wiv us. Wees lets her be in the illustrations though as we luffs her too even when she finks wee is annoying.

What was the inspiration for you to write the books?

Muvver says wee is very inspirational and always getting up to something.

A Greyt Christmas Tail was inspired by me being a very strong boy and dragging muvver along on walksies.

Wee was all dressed up like elves in our new coats and going for a walk when muvver said if I kept pulling that Santa would come and get me. I didn't know who Santa was but then he crashed in our garden and I met him and he is luffly. He has lots of treats in his pockets and helped us run so fast that we fly.

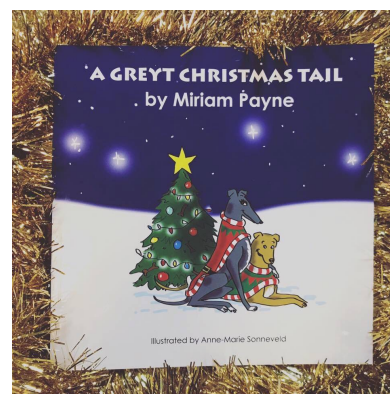

For A Greyt Pirate Tail I didn't like how the nasty loud fireworks scareded my Blue girl so we went on an adventure to make her feel better and tell off those nasty people who made the bangs and scareded her. Muvver says that if lots of children falls in luff with us through our books then it will mean that other greyhounds and lurchers like us get treated more kindly in the future. We went back to Foal Farm to donate a big cheque from our first book. This is going to help them build nice shiny new kennel blocks so they have lots of room for more dogs like me. We also sent a big cheque to help Birmingham Greyhound Protection find homes for more greyhounds like Blue.

What is A Greyt Christmas Tail about?

A Greyt Christmas Tail is set on Christmas Eve. When Santa's sleigh crashes in their back garden, rescue dogs Ramsey and Blue jump into action. Volunteering to pull the sleigh, they help Santa meet his deadline and deliver presents around the world – all before their hoomans wake up.

Where can it be purchased?

It is available on Amazon and in all good book stores. Waterstones, Barnes and Noble etc. Also via muvver's website www.miriampayne.co.uk (all copies sold through there are personalised and signed). Proceeds from A Greyt Christmas Tail go to Foal Farm Animal Rescue and Birmingham Greyhound Protection so wees can help other dogs who need homes like we did.

What is your A Greyt Pirate Tail about?

This swashbuckling story of mischief and danger was inspired by Blue's fear of fireworks.

Ramsey comes up with a plan to get back at the pirates who dared to scare his girl. Join them on this rollicking adventure as they teach some salty seadogs a lesson of friendship, teamwork and bravery. I hates fireworks but not as much as my Bluety does.

She gets very scareded and runs around the house so I has to be a big boy and make her feel better. Wees usually finds a soft corner to cuddle in and muvver ties a scarfy thing around her. I try to give her my braveness so she isn't scareded anymore and that's what this adventure is about.

It's so exciting and everyone luffs it so far... "This is the most delightful book anyone of any age will read all year. A 'tail' of derring do, with exquisite and hilarious illustrations – PAWSOME!" - Pauline McLynn, actress and author I hope that you will all luff it too!

When will it be available and where from?

It's being published on 27th March by Filament Publishing. Will be available on Amazon and in book stores e.g. Waterstones, Barnes and Noble etc. Pre-orders are open at www.miriampayne.co.uk and as before, all copies purchased through this website are personalised and signed.

Do you have any funny or embarrassing stories about writing your books - especially if it involves your human?

Muvver is always embarrassing!! She makes us dress up in costumes and takes lots of photos of us. Blue is a dogel so always looks bluetiful but I is shy and doesn't like it. Elvses was ok but now she wants us to wear pirate hats...I draw the line at eye patches!

When she was writing our second hadventures, wees was just trying to sleep in the sun. She was drinking wine and asking us about pirates and trees and stuff and keeping us awake.

But then wees got to go for long walks around the field and ponds while she talked to herself and then the book was written.

When farver got home she read it to him and he laughed, called us big sillies and gave us treatsels so wees were happy and excited for our next book.

When muvver was writing A Greyt Christmas Tail she had a very stupid idea....she decided to paw print us!

Of course I had to go first as I is the bravest so she got my foot and made it all purple wiv inky stuff then put it on paper but it didn't make a nice big print like she wanted as I spread all my toes out in protest. It gets worse.

The inky stuff didn't come off! Farver washed my foot so much but it was still purple so then I had to wear a sock as muvver didn't want purple pawses on the carpet.

The next day wees were told to get as muddy as wee could on our walk and then walk all over paper on the floor to get prints.

That was much better and now our pawprints run through all our books.

Our favourite thing to do is go to schools and see all the children who luffs our books.

We were guests of honour at a Christmas tree lighting with Santa, which I thought was the perfect time to show off how good I was at singing. I joined in with all the carols and the brass band and everybody laughed. Farver thought it was sooo funny and snuck me treatsels when muvver wasn't looking, she doesn't think I is a good singer

TIGGER INVESTIGATES... SAVIOURS HAVEN SANCTUARY

I Contacted Saviours Haven Sanctuary to find out more about them.

Harpo and Zante were available and happy to answer my questions.

What is the history of Saviours Haven Sanctuary?

Zante: Well if we go waaaay back to the beginning, it all started with our human, Steve, who was previously a child actor and worked in pantomime, performed a comedy entertainment act. It wasn't called Saviours Haven Sanctuary then.

During this time he pretty much lived out of his caravan as he toured all over.

One day the officials on location said he would have to get rid of the animals that toured in the caravan with him as they did not want 'pets'. There was a Jack Russell Terrier called Mitch, 2 doves, 1 rabbit and 2 rats. Steve immediately jumped to their defence and said they were part of their act.

The officials were happy with that explanation and left.

Harpo: Unlike the animals that were shocked to discover their days of lounging around the caravan in luxury would be changing.

Zante: Our human quickly contacted the RSPCA for advice on how to include the animals without risking their welfare.

There was a new routine and script to work out, which took time.

Soon a Specialist Act was put together. It was a comedy - magic routine.

Harpo: You're not kidding about the comedy, the first night he messed up the tricks, forgot some jokes and even managed to set fire to his sleeve.

Zante: Shhhh Harpo.

A magician never reveals their secrets!

Harpo: Never reveal their secrets? Really?

The whole audience was creased up laughing!

Zante: I need to point out no animal was harmed or in any danger.

Harpo: Apart from our human hahahaha.

Zante: Next question please Tigger.

During this time did your human meet any other famous humans?

Zante: Our human does not really name drop Tigger.

Harpo: hahahaha!

Zante: Harpo!

Harpo: What? I never said anything!

Zante: Shut your beak!

Harpo: *sigh* Next question please Tigger.

Why did your human step back from his act and focus ### more on animal education?

Zante: After a show where he had started to try and educate humans into not getting exotic animals, a small human said he enjoyed the show and knew what he wanted to be when he grew up. He wanted to be an animal magician.

Harpo: He realised that instead of educating humans about animals he was encouraging what he felt was the wrong thing for animals.

How many animals live at the sanctuary?

Zante: There are currently 60 animals living here. There was at one point over 168 animals.

Harpo: Can you imagine 168 animals? Imagine the daily clearing up of ...

Zante: Harpo! Next question please Tigger.

How did your human manage to get that many animals and what happened to them?

Zante: Humans started to learn he was an animal lover and they started asking him to take their animals. Some had to go to breed specialist who could provide care for them. The rest spent their life at the Sanctuary until they crossed the rainbow bridge.

Does the Sanctuary have to have licences?

Zante: Yes. We have several, due to exotic animals, animal transportation and animal performance.

Harpo: Not to mention visits from government bodies, animal welfare etc.

What is your next goal?

Harpo: Nuts!

Zante: What?

Harpo: Sorry I got hungry, a bird's gotta eat.

Zante: Our next goal is to raise enough money to be able to buy land..

Harpo: With a house!

Zante: I was getting there! To get somewhere to set up a large and secure sanctuary where more animals can be saved and live out their natural life with us.

We would have an education centre for visitors to learn about the resident animals and why they should never be kept as pets.

Zante

Harpo

To find out more about us visit our website:

www.saviourshavensanctuary.co.uk

As part of their fundraising they do animal shows called Animalgique and I was invited along to see a show.

I was not sure what to expect but it was a very entertaining and educational show. It not only lets humans see animals they would not normally get to see, but it contained educational information as to why they should not be kept as pets.

I asked the animals that were in the show how they felt about being in the show.

Harpo: I am the star! The show would be nothing without my star appearance.

Flower and Timone the meerkats: we love cuddles with our humans on stage but we clearly show the audience our contempt for them with our super terrifying meerkat stare.

Sonny the common corn snake: Ssssssuper , I love it.

Diamond the barn owl: I love showing off my beautiful feathers.

Freddie the chocolate striped skunk: I love going to the shows as I love getting cuddles and kisses.

Zante: As the real star of the show I love the attention. As each of us are not on stage for very long we find it not stressful at all.

Also when our humans get us out of our travel accommodation, if any of us don't feel up to stardom during a show we are put straight back into our accommodation.

That is what we love about our humans, they put us and our needs first.

ANIMALS WITH CAREERS - JESSIE

Tell me a bit about yourself:

My name is Russelena Jessie - Jessie to my friends and family, I am 4 on 26 March & lived with my hoo & 2 catfurbros Alan & Tommy for almost 2 years (they are in charge).

I am half sisfur of Lennie the Loon & girlfriend of Sir Bolly Bark-a-Lot. I came via Sheffield GT at Wortley.

How did you become a blood donor?

I first gave blood 1 month after arriving at my furever home as they do it at Sheffield GT.

The Greyhounds who need homes are all mostly donors there as the Pet Blood Bank like to have our blood due to our excellent quality juice cos we are so fit! Sprat (my Mum can't give red juice so she said I could do it for us both! She is very proud of us all

What does it involve?

We first get a free health check MOT off the lovely vet to make sure we are healthy & have no problems.

We get a small bit of neck fur shaved off & a sample taken to see if we have good blood & no nasties in it.

We also have our teefs checked, eyes, ears, tummy, heart & a general top to tail & toe check. If we are good to donate we then get taken to a special area where we have lots of cuddles & support.

Someone lifts us on a comfy bed & snuggles us all the time - which I love!

They then pop a cannula pointy needle in our neck & fill a bag up with our blood. Often 750g so I am told.

Takes about 30-45 minutes the whole start to finish. When we have filled the bag they take my pulse so it drops to normal level they redress me (yes I do it naked)!

Then the best bit - food & treats & a free toy, plus goodie bag of bandanas, stickers, shopping bags, & Fish4Dogs salmon treats - well worth it for the goodies!

Oh on my 5th donation I got a special lead as I saved 20 dogs! A bag of our blood can save up to 4 dogs!

Do you need to do anything special to stay a blood donor?

We get weighed as we have to weigh no less than 25 or 26 kg. I usually stick about 27.5kg. I can't travel abroad due to diseases in other countries & I can't be on long term medication. Other than that I just go every 3 or 4 times a year. I always have 'excellent' on my reports. Last time round they said I was the perfect example of how a donor should be - proud pointy is !!!!!

Do you have any funny or embarrassing stories about giving blood?

Sadly no but I am sure there are plenty of times to come to have some as I won't retire until maybe 9 years old as we can keep going for years .

I love donating to help my 4 & sometimes 3 legged pals. You never know when you may need a bit of my blood.

Sign up it's a great cause to support. Pet Blood Bank are a wonderful charity & love us all.

All breeds can donate as far as I know just gotta be the 25kg over weight. I would encourage any fural to sign up to help our pawpals out there.

A NICE WALK ON THE BEACH

As the weather warms up it is nice to go to the beach for a walk with your humans.

There are things you need to be careful of when walking on the beach.

Sand:

Yes sand feels nice on your paws but get your human to make sure the sand is not too hot for you to walk on. Also there is the risk of objects that are hidden in the sand which may be poisonous or cause injury to you.

Where there is sand there is a risk of quicksand. Quicksand is caused by a hole filled up with loose sand and water which makes a gloopy mess that is very hard to walk through or get out of. Also, depending on the size of the hole, you or your human may find yourself stuck or submerged.

Water:

Always take care when in the sea as the tide is always changing and may pull you out to sea.

Drinking sea water is not good for you either as there is a high level of salt which can make you very sick.

Sun:

Yes I know in the UK this can be a rare event BOL!
Humans do not realise that we can get sunburnt and suffer heatstroke too. So your humans need to keep an eye on you.

Seaweed:

Seaweed is in abundance on most beaches but you need to take care with seaweed that is dried out. If you eat any it can expand inside you and cause a lot of damage or in some cases death.

Dead fish (and other dead things on the shoreline):

Apart from grossing your humans out by sniffing then rolling in something dead and stinky on the beach, you need to avoid going near anything like this. The dead critter may have died from disease, but even if it didn't it will now be jumping with bacteria and other nasty germs that can make you ill.

Jellyfish:

Some jellyfish are poisonous and can make us very ill. Even non poisonous jellyfish can cause problems as we may be allergic to them.

Palm Oil:

This can appear on beaches as white or grey jelly type or solid lumps, sometimes mistaken for washed up polystyrene. These must be totally avoided as they are waste product and some humans had the bright idea of getting rid of it by dumping it out at sea. After being dumped out at sea it travels the tides picking up a vast amount of nasty bacteria.

Seals:

Seals naturally get out of the water and have a rest on the shoreline. Normally they do it at times when there are not a lot of humans or dogs around.

They can be aggressive if they are disturbed and even more so if they have their young with them.

Keep away from the seals.
If your human is worried that the seal may be injured, tell them not to approach them and contact a local wildlife or marine expert.

Other dogs:

Not all dogs get on with each other and not all dogs are allowed to run off lead on the beach.

If you came across another off lead dog make sure you listen to your humans if they call you away from that dog.

Never approach a dog that is on lead if you are off lead.

Humans:

If there are humans sitting on the beach don't rush up to them as not everyone wants a soggy, sand covered slobbery cuddle from you.

Also avoid helping yourself to their picnics.

Keep well away from humans that are fishing as they have hooks, line, lead weights and other things that are harmful to you.

INTERVIEW WITH STRAWBERRY

Tell me a little bit about yourself:

I'm Strawberry now although I started off life as a nameless hound.

I was saved in May 2015 in the area of Valencia in Spain.

I was given the name Lexy which then became Holly in December as I moved to the UK ironically by my Mamá who didn't know we were destined to be together the following year.

I'm a Podenco cross Bretton Spaniel which makes a good combination as a hunter. This is what I started life out as and somehow escaped.

How many humans/siblings do you have and long have you had them?

I've lived with Mamá since April 2016. It's a challenge for us both especially since she's deaf and so any verbal communication from me ain't gonna work very well.

Do you work? If so where/ what do you do?

I would like to work as a Pet as Therapy dog when I'm older and calmed down a little

If you could choose your name what would it be?

If I could choose my own name, it would be princesa since I feel like one in my new life but hey, any name is nice to have. It means I then belong and am loved.

What is your favourite food?

My favourite food is anything that's not fruit!

Rabbit poo is high up on the list though.

Where is your favourite place to be?

My favourite place to be is next to my good friend Tigger. Failing that, on the settee next to Mamá.

What is your favourite way to entertain yourself (annoy) with your humans?

I love winding Mamá up by dragging the duvet off the bed to get her to open the back door to let me out and I run back to take her warm spot in bed!

What is your greatest accomplishment?

My greatest accomplishment is getting my uncle bro to not be worried about me being on his bed.

What is your next goal in life?

My next goal in life is to be able to run freely on our walks and get Mamá to trust me that I'll come back.

If you could be/do anything for a day, what would it be?

If I could be anything for a day, I would bring in a few laws to stop racing and hunting hounds and every hound in the world has a loving home and not one be scared or hurt anymore.

Or I could be a sossidges taster!

Finally and most importantly...What was your human's most embarrassing moment?

As for Mamá's most embarrassing moment, we haven't lived long enough together to have one of those incidents.....

*looks at Mamá who is looking at my crate as I answered this*

OUT AND ABOUT - INTERNATIONAL

CREATED BY EARTH - THE NETHERLANDS

Created by Earth started in Alkmaar in 2006. Since then we have been there for everyone who is interested in sustainable clothing. Nowadays we sell brands from over the world and we keep renewing our assortment with new brands.

Apart from the many basics, we have lovely and modern dresses, stunning shirts and we have recently started with designing our own prints. We even have our own line of hand knitted sweaters and cardies made from organic wool!

The shop in Alkmaar has been there for 10 years and we feel that it is time to bring our service to you online.

Along with our main brand we have created our Whippets and Tees line.

Under the label Whippets and Tees we design artwork of sighthounds such as greyhounds, galos whippets, podencos. With this line we want to support rescue organisations for sighthounds. A portion of the proceeds from this line benefit organizations that are committed to the welfare of the dogs.

HEALTHY HOUND PLAYGROUND - VIRGINIA USA

Healthy Hound Playground provide doggy daycare and dog boarding.

With 24/7 on site staff in order to monitor the safety and health of all its guests, even when they have moved from daycare to their private sleeping quarters for the night.

Healthy Hound Playground employs an Animal Behaviorist that is responsible for staff training and overall dog safety. This helps to ensure that their guests are able to run, play, and socialize in a safe and structured environment.

During a typical day of daycare, all dogs spend their time 100% cage-free in one of three expansive daycare rooms, totally about 3,800 square feet.

For the evening, we offer dogs large individual canine cottages complete with even thicker cushioned rubber matting and elevated canine cots to sleep away their day of play.

We currently have about 55 canine cottages, all 4 feet by 6 feet and larger. For pups that feel more comfortable in smaller quarters, They have an additional 30 large semi-permanent crates.
